

PRESS RELEASE

NORTH DEVON HOMES LTD

New Chief Executive, New Vision

North Devon Homes are extremely pleased to announce that the Board appointed Martyn Gimber as Chief Executive on 1st August 2007.

Martyn joined North Devon Homes as Director of Resources in 1999 and was instrumental in establishing the new company which enabled the purchase of 3,200 homes from North Devon District Council. He has over 20 years experience in Social Housing and has worked for a number of leading housing providers across the country.

“I am really pleased to have been appointed as Chief Executive of North Devon Homes and I am looking forward to working with the board and staff at North Devon Homes to deliver better homes and services to our customers” Martyn Gimber, Chief Executive

Martyn was also heavily involved in the creation of the new vision at North Devon Homes which was launched in May this year and is committed to the organisational review which is ongoing. This review will create a structure for the staff to deliver their services more effectively and ultimately to strive to achieve the vision of “working together to create communities where people want to live”

“Affordable housing has quite rightly been rising rapidly up the political agenda both nationally and here in Devon. There is currently a housing crisis out there and everybody in the community needs to work together to help us tackle this issue and improve the situation.” Martyn Gimber, Chief Executive
